"Moving To Mmm"

You thought I was fixed
You thought the problem was solved
I had some other ideas
I had some other dreams

You said your crown would shine no matter where I'd be
My colours here are already fading

Hey, now I'm moving to... mmm
It's good to scream, you hear me now, I'm getting louder
Hey, now I'm moving to... mmm
Can't break my vows, its time to go, I'm moving further

I feel it all in me
I feel the time is right
I've got no money on me
But tell me who ever has?

You said my flaws were turning from pink to black
And I can't turn off the music that's playing

Spain or maybe Manhattan
China or San Francisco
I've never been to Russia
And now I can't turn off the music thats playing
