

Mark Manthei*"Why"

Visit "Why" on MotoLyrics.com

There's a dark cloud over this city tonight
As I walk down coca lane
I feel the cold wind blowing through my heart
I feel the blood boiling in my veins
I didn't know you'd strike like lightning
I thought I knew you so well
You left me standing alone hear so frightened
Frozen by your farewell
So why should I miss you
Tell me why should I love you

Some folks say, the kind of girls I knew
Were a dime a dozen, they were never true
They could walk on water, kiss like fire
Just like you
It must of been the hand that you held over me
A prison of yours, till you set me free
Your no good for me
Your just no good for me
So tell me why should I miss you
Tell me why did I love you

Hey you never did satisfy me
But you sure did try
And I'm alone tonight
But that's your loss
Not mine

Sweet temptation is so unique
It must of been my strength that made you weak
Your no good for me
Your just no good for me
You were never any good for me
And your still no good for me
Tell me why, tell me why
So tell me why should I miss you
Tell me why did I love you

