Your eyes don't shine anymore,
Look deep in mine anymore,
Your hands don't tremble when we touch,
The nights are lonely again
Like you don't know me again
Our dreams all drift away from us
But I can't let go
I love you that's all I know
And you still have a hold on my heart
A hold on my soul
I can't let you go

So I'll be tender tonight
And find one amber's light
A flame that draws you close to me
I'll keep it burning away
So you won't turn away
And maybe in it's light you'll see
That I can't let go
I love you that's all I know
And you still have a hold on my heart
A hold on my soul
I can't let you go
No, I can't let go,
I love you that's all I know,
And you still have a hold on my heart
A hold on my soul
I can't let you go...I can't let you go.
