It was like stepping into a cathedral of Ponderosa Pine
A gentle rain brings the sweet smell of sagebrush all along the Eagle River
Romance and ardor imbue my aching heart once again
Oh Colorado Take me home.

Chorus "â€"

Oh Colorado, My Sweet Colorado It wont be long until Iâ€™m back home to you
Oh Colorado Shower me with your sunshine, Oh
Colorado take me home

I see a Silvery Daisy in the windswept snow
Reminds me of you, and the you I used to know
Will I ever have the chance to love again?
How I love you Coloradoâ€!

Chorus

Hearts rise in the clouds of glory, above the granite peaks of the Rocky Mountain Sky
The song flight of a Lark Bunting echoes down the valley
Oh Colorado, shower me w/ your sunshine
Oh Coloradoâ€! Take me home
(Full Orchestration solo)
Isn't this the place she wrote America the beautifulâ€?
Isn't this the place we fell desperately in love?
Like the Routt Forest that rolls on and on forever
I pledge my endless love for youâ€!
How I love you Coloradoâ€!
