Do you believe in miracles?, Do you believe in Love?
How 'bout things that last forever, Do you think that could be us?
And as we are joined together on this very special day
In front of friends and family, who gives this bride away?

Girl forever, is a long, long time
I can't see it any other way in my heart and in my mind

Will our love light burn strong and bright, surviving every rain?
Will our love stand tall, just like a wall, against our fears and pain?
Will you be there to catch me, if I should ever fall?
Will you swear your love to God above because he's behind it all?

Girl forever,.. is a long, long time
I can't see it any other way in my heart and in my mind.

As the river flows, safely to the sea,
That's the way a love can be, with you and me.,
Here comes the bride, all dressed in white
With her man by her side. For the rest of their lives,

Yes we believe in miracles and we believe in love
And if one thing lasts forever,
I am sure it will be us,
And whenever I hear church bells,
it will take me to this day.
When I pledged my love forever, and you gave away your name

Here comes the bride,, all dressed in white
With her man by her side, for the rest of their lives,,
For the rest of their lives,,.
