Sometimes when I walk alone I wonder if I can call your phone

Maybe take the bus to a place make her go away erase me wine shake away her face

From your mind I can take her place but still give you the space when you need to breath

Just follow me I'll show you just how real emotion should feel like

You mind the prettier you mind the better but I know I could never replace her

So please, I'm begging you come with me

Come with me, come with me

Please, I'm begging you come with me

I'll never make your heart freeze

I'll keep your heart safe and warm even though I know you, you never feel alone

I know it may seem much my heart is made out of stone, but

It's bleeding, it's burning, it's hurting feeling

Laughing, crying, screaming

I'm hard to get, I know I'm hard to reach but just feel my words and my heartbeat

And I think you'll understand me-e

So please, I'm begging you come with me

Come with me, come with me

Please, I'm begging you come with me

I'll never make your heart freeze

I'm begging you, I'm begging you

Come with me, Come with me

Mhm! Whoa

I'm begging you, I'm begging you

Come with me, Come with me yeah

And I'm begging you, Please, I'm begging you

Come with me, Come along with me, Come with me

Oh oh

And I'm begging you, Please Come with me

So please, I'm begging you come with me

I'm begging you, Please Come with me

Come with me!

Please, I'm begging you come with me

Please I'm begging you come with me

I'll never make your heart freeze
