Don't cry
I am here and I am strong
Don't hide your light!
Got to learn to let it shine on
You've got everything inside
You need to survive
And that's why I'm here tonight
To be your guardian angel
I'll sing the world to sleep
Hold you close and keep you well
Watch the moon rise in the East
Be your guardian angel
Secrets
You know they're safe with me
Regret
Only if you're where you used to be
There is joy deep down inside
I see someone so alive
And that's why I'm here tonight
To be your guardian angel
I'll sing the world to sleep

Hold you close and keep you well

Watch the moon rise in the East

Be your guardian angel

Think about it now

On such a warm warm night

Shouldn't we fly?

Fly....

I'll sing the world to sleep

Hold you close and keep you well

Watch the moon rise in the East

Be your guardian angel
