On your mark, light a spark
On your mark, light a spark
This heart is fueled by cigarettes
This heart is fueled by street lights

On your mark, light a spark
On your mark, light a spark

You resurrect
We back down

This world is a back drop so start to move
This world is a back drop so start to move

Flesh eats away at flesh
The taste of self-defeat
The symphony has fallen out of tune
Flesh eats away at flesh
The taste of self-defeat
The symphony has fallen out of tune
I've become a weakened heart
So sever what you don't need
I've become a weakened heart
So sever what you don't need
Sever what you don't need

This world is a back drop: start to move
