

Once Blue

"Waves"

Visit "Waves" on MotoLyrics.com

I wanna see waves upon waves, upon
Waves upon waves, upon
Upon seas of blood
Waves upon waves, upon
Waves upon waves, upon
Seas of blood

Flood it all, let us down in a sea of blood

It's a beautiful thing, this spinning globe
But I'm not born of this
And I'm a long way from home
So I'll wait by the sea
To let the waves crash over me
Cover the nation
Make your presence known
I want to see waves

I have built my walls and drawn my lines
(I have built my walls and drawn my lines)
Rise, rain down
Rise, rain down

Today we stand, to rise and fall
And you can have the world
You can flood it all!

Can I get a hallelujah, right now?
