Are we meant to be friends?
Or something more than just odds and ends
Pardon me to you I ask
Why did you come across my path?

Am I just a foolish guy?
Should I all of these feelings hide
I hope I'm not the only one
That has noticed this midnight sun

Have you
Thought about us
Can you feel this sensation
Did love knock on your door
Is it whispering the word
Us, one little word
Holding our lives between it
If you have any doubts
The answer is us

Does my name tickle your heart
What do you feel when we are apart
Should I stop
And turn around
Before this feeling will bring me down
Have you
Thought about us
Can you feel this sensation
Did love knock on your door
Is it whispering the word
Us, one little word
Holding our lives between it
If you have any doubts
The answer is us
The answer is us
