Haven't I seen you in beverly hills
Shopping them like, you got a closet to fill
Just like woho, hah, want you like woho, woho
You might be the baddest thing I've ever seen
But you're hiding behind, designer glasses and jeans
Just like woho, hah, want you like woho, woho

Shopping for armani
Is all you really care about
Buy the latest fashion to hide your insecurities
Roberto Cavali and so, you're ever wearing now
But I just want you to know that

[Chorus]
Girl you don't need them clothes,
Beautiful on your own
The things that you wear, don't compare to you at all
Don't need them clothes, you don't need em to go
You're sexy as hell when you're taking them off
Baby you don't need them clothes
Don't them oh, oh, oh, oh, clothes

Buying your self esteem it isn't cheap
But I read you out, just come get naked with me
Just like woho, hah, my love is free, woho, free

Ysl and prada is all you really care about
Buy the latest fashion to hide, your insecurities
Dolce and Gabbana is all you're ever wearing now
But I just want you to know, babe

[Chorus]
Girl you don't need them clothes,
Beautiful on your own
The things that you wear, don't compare to you at all
Don't need them clothes, you won't need em to go
You're sexy as hell when you're taking them off
Baby you don't need them clothes
Don't them oh, oh, oh, oh, clothes

If only, could just see what I see

You wouldn't need no retail, therapy
All the credit cards, all the debit cards
And the shopping malls you'd need
I'm it all,
Girl you got it, I want your body
Cause you got it all

Shopping for Armani
Is all you ever care about
But I just want you to know that

[Chorus]
Girl you don't need them clothes,
Beautiful on your own
The things that you wear, don't compare to you at all
Don't need them clothes, you won't need em to go
You're sexy as hell when you're taking them off
Baby you don't need them clothes
Don't them oh, oh, oh, oh, clothes
