The end time has come, oh the time is near..

I'm seen the signs around the world...

Are you ready ? Are you ever prepared?

To leave this world to heavenly above...

Lo, for nation shall rise against the nation..

And kingdom against kingdom woe..

And there shall be famines and poverty woe,

Pestilences and earthquakes around the world woe..

Oh this generation, You are the last one, the last one for peril and doom

Hark the words of Jesus Christ for salvation..

You brothers and sisters, Hark and Surrender to Jesus
(2x)

Come now You rich man, weep and howl..

that miseries and sorrow to come upon you...

Rusted, corrupted riches, it's vanity..

You have heaped the treasures, for the last days..

Stop your pleasures of life woe....

You have nourished your heart with sin..

You loved sin...rusted gold...Silver and woe...(Oh this generation..)
