You will know us by the smile we show
in the morning glow and the stories we tell
You will know us by the way we blink
and the pennies we throw down the wishing well

We are the rising
We are the rising
We are the rising

Band together, Robot Nation
We're the future generation
Stand together, fight the fight
Don your armor and laser lights
Hear the pin drop in the wasteland
Where are all the familiar faces?
Love each other, light the light
With mechanical hearts and electric minds
Join with us in celebration
We're the future generation
We are the rising
We are the rising
We are the rising

You will know us by the smile we show
in the morning glow and the stories we tell
You will know us by the way we blink
and the pennies we throw down the wishing well

We are the rising
We are the rising
We are the rising

Band together, Robot Nation
We're the future generation
Stand together, fight the fight
Don your armor and laser lights
Hear the pin drop in the wasteland
Where are all the familiar faces?
Love each other, light the light
With mechanical hearts and electric minds
Join with us in celebration
We're the future generation

We are the rising
We are the rising
We are the rising
