The war is over
Yeah the war is over
Sweet nothing waiting for the rain
She's an angel
Such a beautiful angel
Sitting in the window pane

When the last bell chimes
Is it something to forget?
Now and until the end of time
Is it something to forget?

Break down
It's okay to break down
If you want peace of mind tonight
Cry a river
You just cry a river
Give somewhere swim into the night

When the last bell chimes
Is it something to forget?
Now and until the end of time
Is it something to forget?

(Break down)

When the last bell chimes
Is it something to forget?
Now and until the end of time
Is it something to forget?
