Uh huh, what we have here is a failure to communicate Come on!

[Verse 1: Wrekonize]

Yeah, hey, hey

Tie an army to your bootstraps, coffee in your blood

Wallet full of food stamps, pocket full of drugs

Blueprints to move this, city from the mud

You get a discount at the morgue, if ya diggin' yourself up.

Yeah, you go ham, I'll go back bacon

Taking steps towards death and the method is quite back breaking

Show up for dinner like a lab patient

But yet a masked Jason, you're pointing at me like (I'm Satan)

Not in the slightest, lieutenant, treat my organ like my rifle

I'm a spiteful Lou Bennett, I'm a menace to all minsters

Evidence star winners is vivid as all genesis, gimme a call religion engaged

I sip a soda can full of rage and welcome death's doorbell ringing on me any day.

Modern warfare best believe that many play

I'd rather die amongst the tribe than be alive as any slave

[Chorus: Bernz]

Death march

Walking towards our demise

I see the cliff, they see my eyes

This ain't time for goodbyes on a

Death March

Walking towards our demise

I see the cliff, they see my eyes

Nose dive

[Verse 2: Bernz]

Countin' sheep, not for sleep

Countin' them cause so many surroundin me

They walk the streets, they watching me

Lately I look over my shoulder constantly Walking in haze, foggy days for days, so far heat I can see the nuclear waste
So resortin' to drastic measures, propellin from roofs, cement boots and tarred feathers Lat-lat-lat-lately feel sedated to Slipping me poison, when I drink your wine and eat your food
Is it enough for you to change my mood
Hot as aÅ ? I think I like a sa-sa-sa-sack of scoob
How come this whiskey make 'em shifty?
Black magic, addicts, signing up early just to get tipsy
My family told me be careful, they know this life's too risky
I told them to pay no 'em mind, while we marched in the line.

[Chorus: Bernz]
Death march
Walking towards our demise
I see the cliff, they see my eyes
This ain't time for goodbyes on a

Death March
Walking towards our demise
I see the cliff, they see my eyes
Nose dive
