[Verse 1]

Standing here I'm seeing you, lighting up another crowded room

You're as beautiful to me as you've ever been
And I'm in a conversation that ain't holding my attention
I get that way when I see you smiling

For all the ways you keep me guessing
Every day I count my blessings

[Chorus]

For the friend I have in you, for loving me the way you do
For all those little things we share
And every moment I'm amazed, I get to hold you everyday
It's so good knowing that you're there
You're as beautiful to me as you've ever been Sometimes I'm not sure where heaven ends, and you begin

[Verse 2]

It's been a long long time getting here, and as the days roll into years
I never tire of waking up with you Now we're raising up this family, trying to give the best of you and me
And I hope that it's enough to get them through

For all the storms that we weather
I'm so thankful we're together

[Chorus]

For the friend I have in you, for loving me the way you
do
For all those little things we share
And every moment I'm amazed, I get to hold you
everyday
It's so good knowing that you're there
You're as beautiful to me as you've ever been

Sometimes I'm not sure where heaven ends, and you

So many memories hanging up there on our wall.
Reminds me every day that I have it all

[Chorus]

do

For all those little things we share
And every moment I'm amazed, I get to hold you
everyday

It's so good knowing that you're there
You're as beautiful to me as you've ever been Sometimes I'm not sure where heaven ends

Standing here I'm seeing you, lighting up another
crowded room
You're as beautiful to me as you've ever been
