We start our engines
Its Midnight. Ready, Set, Let's Go!
The heat is rising
The flag goes down, Its time to roll.
We're making good time
The moon is showing us the road
The streets are empty
Looks like the perfect night to...

Go! go! go! Enciende y Mecanizalo!
Go! go! go! Enciende y Mecanizalo!

Five miles to score
You better hold on to your bones
The speed is in your soul
It grows beyond control

Five miles to score
You better hold on to your bones
The wind becomes the storm
You better run and take the gold

It's been a rough ride
The sweat is dripping down my face
We have no time left
The track brakes down into a maze
Its dead man's curve now
The wheels lock down into the grownd
Hey! Colossus! Don't let me down!

Let`s fire it up! Let`s fire it up! Let`s fire it up! (x4)
