Jenn, can you hear it
We've been talking to long
Its to late too redeem it

Jenn, I DO mean it
You have always been wrong
Can you stop intervening

So dont run behind me
Couse I know you're gonna be late,
You're gonna be late
Dont run behind me
Couse I know you're gonna be late,
you're gonna be late, anyhow.

You're being fanatical
Just frenetical
Unreliable to me
You're being fanatical
Just frenetical
Not reliable to me

Jenn, I am serious
It's been over for long
You're becoming delirious

And Jenn, this is vicious
All this wondering around
It's becoming suspicious

So dont run behind me
Couse I know you're gonna be late,
You're gonna be late
Dont run behind me
Couse I know you're gonna be late,
you're gonna be late, anyhow.

You're being fanatical
Just frenetical
Unreliable to me
You're being fanatical
Just frenetical

Not reliable to me

I know you'll never change
what you became
And you'll always stay the same
You'll have to stay away
You'll have to stay away
(x2)

Dont try to come again
Couse there's nothing to explain
I know you'll never change
what you became
And you'll always stay the same

Dont try to come again

I want you out of sight
Just leave and without a fight
Dont waste your "precious" time
Walk away and forget my life

I want you out of sight
And without a fight
And forget my life
