Come close to me
Let everything fall away
Take me now to secret places deep inside my heart

Come close to me
Come and calm these raging seas
I'm feeling dry and weary but you said you're all i need

Love, do you believe in me?
I find it so hard to see you here
I find it so hard to see
You know, you know, you know
I've been circling round these creeping doubts
But i know that you can save me now
I know that you can save me

Time has got ahold of me
These bones are breaking but this heart will be Hearing every promise made to me of what is yet to come

I'll break these ties belief is everything i recognize
To light the fire caught inside our eyes
We'll be the ones in time

Come close to me
