Brace yourself for the come down
Chase the sun to find another way around this
What is love just a dream then?
Let it fly in the sunset

Something's saying "no don't let your heart go just yet"
Eyes are playin tricks, heart is saying lies
Give me just a bit to lie down
To lie down

We're falling away at the speed of sound
Shake the whole world as we hit the ground
Make it alright now or never, just come make this real
to me

Paper thin adaptation
Revelation coming of a brighter day
What is faith but a sequence of grace and gravity just running in my way?

Something's saying "jump"
So you run back hoping Left your wings at home and there you know they don't believe anything

We're falling away at the speed of sound
Shake the whole world as we hit the ground
Make it alright now or never, just come make this real
to me

It's make believe, close your eyes
We can see everything
Live to defy, wake up, ignite
We can see everything

We're falling away at the speed of sound
Shake the whole world as we hit the ground
Make it alright now or never, just come make this real
to me

We're falling away at the speed of sound
Shake the whole world as we hit the ground

Make it alright, make it better just come make this real
to me
