chorus

I declare war on the enemy, cause God has made me to think clearly.

Their is a battle going before your very eyes, and if you fail to fight you'll soon witness the scene of your demise .I'm a spokesman, here to enlighten you, to respond quickly cause when night falls your through.
The mind is war zone, arm yourself likewise don't be distracted by cries, or become paralyzes, with physical,victory is coming, hold fast the hours critical,this fight is spiritual.And every moment giving thanks for another breath ,cause any second their could be no more left.So while I'm giving praise to the Lord because he found me . I declare war.

I declare war on the enemy, cause God has made me
to think clearly.

The word of God exposes many tricks of the enemy
,one being ignorance study to show thyself approved of thee. Another, emotional conflict witch causes much trouble in your members, i remember the enemy beneath me.And when it comes to love the evil one cant handle it, because it involves giving and selflessness .Sacrifice for one another would you give your life for your brother? since the foundation of the I've been giving this moment for the sake of Christ. This war is not done with knives, just love and stay on your grind, where ever theirs sin just bind, the word keep it on your mind.
Jesus of Nazareth is whom i adore for this cause i declare war.

I declare war on the enemy, cause God has made me
to think clearly.
