Your innocence is resting
Upon my liar's chest
Unprovoked surrender
I guess you know best

Nothing is as painful as the
Way i'm killing you (slow and cold and smiling too)
Your blood slowly draining
But I know you want it too, don't you?

Clenched fist holds a chain
Prove and lose what makes a human being
Don't care anymore

Clenched fist holds a chain
Prove and loose what makes a human bane
Don't care anymore

I am the same
The same as everyone
Hiding in my shielding lies
And yet you still believe
In your false messiah
In your false redemption

Silencing your outcries
To find a fleeting peace (you're alive)
One that only your kind of Kneeling princess needs

Nothing is as silent as the
Way i'm killing you (slow and cold and smiling too)
Your heart slowly failing
But I know you want it too, you do

I am the same
The same as everyone
Hiding in my shielding lies
And yet you still believe
In your false messiah
In your false redemption

Clenched fist holds a chain
Prove and lose what makes a human being
Don't care anymore

Deceive to hold the reins
Draining life to fuel my ends profane
Don't care anymore

I am the same
The same as everyone
Hiding in my shielding lies
In your false messiah
In your false redemption

I fall behind
Cannot find the way
In this light I see I'm blind
And so once again
I'll be your false messiah
I'll be your false redemption

Suffocate all your pain
Suffocate all your sorrow
And the hours pass so slow
With your heart cold and hollowed
Your eyes are open but they fail to see
And your frail voice still calls out to me
