Dance inna Babylon, until its throne a fall
I'n'I who see teachings of the Rastaman,
Back inna the yard living gets so hard,
Never play the game of a politician (x2)

With righteousness I will bring you to my heart, reveal you all I have ever heard and everything will be so far away, cause you to me mean every word I say

Me just can't try to fight that all only with me hands but with you here, with no fear, I know it could be better and I always know where we a come from and I'll fight till Jah keep me so strong!

Dance inna Babylon, until its throne a fall
I'n'I who see teachings of the Rastaman,
Back inna the yard living gets so hard,
Never play the game of a politician(x2)

Inna this race, where people rise and fall ain't got no money? Well you've got to bow!

But with your work, with the knowledge of your edge, you won't believe to every single word dem say

Me not a soldier, it's not there where I'm supposed to be and ain't no work, ain't no game, me nah work for your deals

Me see everyone suffering alone but together dem can't never get we down

Dance inna Babylon, until its throne a fall
I'n'I who see teachings of the Rastaman,
Back inna the yard living gets so hard,
Never play the game of a politician (x2)

Blaze, blaze up the fire, and look down the road

Blaze, blaze up the fire, for dem who neva bow

Blaze, blaze up the fire, and look down the road

Blaze, blaze up the fire, becaw dem neva tell you what:

Children suffering, struggling for politic strategy

Dem neva care 'bout woman, only what dem a conquering

Dem boundaries and barriers control all we humanity

But sufferah still shouting and you won't hear about it!
