Hearts go freezing in winter
in spring we thaw them all out
let the summer take over Inside out ...
If we prepare for the seasons
Change our minds
for the fall
There our love
will be shining
All year long
Will you be ready for me ?
When the years go away
For the life that is changing
Every day
Will you be ready for laughter
For the things
we will loose
If this love isn't perfect
What will you choose?
Autumn changes the colors
Of our coats
and our days
Keep the leaves
now from falling Down our way
Fingers holding a hand Warming up
in the cold
You kiss sun
in my eyes
All year long
Will you be ready for me
When the years go away
For the life that is changing
Every day
Will you be ready for laughter
For the things
we will loose
If this love isn't perfect
What will you choose?
We will be changing

Our nights our days
We'll hold the future
In different hands
Different people
Different times
with every year
We are different kind Will you be ready for me
when the years go away
For the life that is changing
Every day
Will you be ready for laughter
For the things
we will lose
If this love isn't perfect
What will you choose?
What will you choose?
What will you choose?
What will you ...
Choo
oo oo oo ...
What will you choose? Hearts go freezing in winter
in spring we thaw them all out
let the summer take over
Inside out ...
If we prepare
for the seasons
Change our minds
for the fall
There our love
