Though i would be strong
to make a smile
each and every day

I'm smiling with my soul,
just try and you will see
the light inside

How could it be so lost
in translation?
How people start taking
the exceptions?

As the sun rises, our soul setting,
because we follow
someone else's mission.

I though i would be strong
to keep my dreams
exactly the way they are.

I'm smiling with my soul,
just try and you will see
the light inside.

How could it be so lost
in translation?
How people start taking
the exceptions?

As the sun rises, our soul setting,
because we follow
someone else's mission.

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
Hello, where you've been?

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.

I call it smile.

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
Hello, where you've been?

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
I call it smile.

Everyday we say
that the world will change
one day.

And we keep on waiting,
without a light with no desire.

How could it be so lost
in translation?
How people start taking
the exceptions?

As the sun rises, our soul setting,
because we follow
someone else's mission.

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
Hello, where you've been?

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
I call it smile.

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
Hello, where you've been?

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
I call it smile.

This is my message to go forward.
To pay attention to the things.
People said it. Make love, not war.

We are small part of the things.

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
Hello, where you've been?

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
I call it smile.

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
Hello, where you've been?

Lets stop the pain
that runs through our veins.
The soul is free.
I call it smile.
