[Hook:]

All we have is right now

All we have is right now

[Verse 1: MGK]

Uh, uh, yeah, Staring out into the unknown

Voices in the wind telling me to come home, but I'm scared

Scared that all this time I've been gone I'll open up the door and my little daughter will be grown

And I'm cold, tell me why I'm so cold?

Probably cause a shoulder turns every night that I'm on the road

Probably why I can't smile every time that I'm on the phone

And why I'm acting so wild every time that I'm alone

Save me! I suffocate myself inside the bed trying to cut the circulation

Of these thoughts inside my head like

"Do I hate me? or do I hate them? " Either way I've held grudges since I was holding a pen

My father had me thinking my cousin was dead just to hide me from the truth

How can I look at him again? But this is life, and in life we learning to live

And when the past dies this where it begins cause

[Hook:]

All we have is right now, Go hard or go home

All we have is right now, Go hard or go home

All we have is right now, Go hard or go home

All we have is right now, Go hard or go home

[Verse 2: MGK]

Question, What if tomorrow never comes and everything you said today couldn't be undone?

Cause' all it takes is a bullet from one gun to take another's moment away from their one love. I know

See I was just an only child growing up, just frowns cause' I never seen a smile growing up

But you? You were a friend, always down growing up

Give the word, knew you would've blown trial growing up Fuck! How could we let all this petty shit blind us?
How the fuck did we let the devil find us?
See, we were supposed to be best friends till' the end You promised! How'd it take that fucking night to remind us?
I only said I hated you cause you're the only one that's ever honest Man I said I was wrong, let's get beyond this! But it's crazy Cause I never thought my text apologizing would be the reason that you died driving. Damn

[Hook:]

All we have is right now, Go hard or go home
All we have is right now, Go hard or go home
All we have is right now, Go hard or go home
All we have is right now, Go hard or go home

[Bridge: MGK]

Hey, and when the sky turns grey, what you gonna do when your blues still stay?
Tried living the dream, yeah, but you still awake
Anything is possible though, cause rules still break...
Hey, said when the sky turns grey, what you gonna do
when your blues still stay?
Anything is possible cause rules still break so when your dream comes don't wake... yeah

[Hook:]

All we have is right now, All we have is right now
All we have is right now, All we have is right now
All we have is right now, Go hard or go home
All we have is right now, Go hard or go home
All we have is right now, Go hard or go home
All we have is right now, Go hard or go home
