Hello darling, my name is mental
Don't be scared I promise I'm gentle
Hush now darling, I won't stay long
Now a little pressure before I'm gone

And I say
Oh, who do you think you are
Oh, I'm proud to bear these scars
And I say
Oh, who do you think you are
Oh, I'm proud to bear these scars

Oh, you miserable fool
Don't you see life is foul, it's infected, it's cruel
So don't think with your mind
But enact with your body

You're losing you're losing you're losing
You're losing your

Mind your own business
With God as my witness
You will lose this war, you will be no more
So step up to the plate as I chew on your bait
And spit it right back in your face

And I say
Oh, who do you think you are
Oh, I'm proud to bear these scars
And I say
Oh, who do you think you are
Oh, I'm proud to bear these scars
