Everyone needs a form of escape

Sometimes we all just need a break

A laugh, a dance, a smile, a song

But this music needs a beat

No it's not what you think, not the drums

It needed a heartbeat all along

(Girl would you be my new song)

Would you be my new melody

So everyday we can dance and I'll sing with you

Then they'll say this song is beautiful, it's all so beautiful

Then the sounds will ring out

As we shout all the words to the song

And if you sing along maybe we can be,

Baby we can be in perfect harmony

And as I work on this next verse

I call you up and I ask for the Words are all I need, for this story to have an ending.

So together no matter the weather,

Better hurt now than not ever risk at all

So we'll right our wrongs

Let's write our song, so

We can sing our new melody
And on this day we will step to the tempo
So that we can stay in time and never fall behind.
If we can't find the words
Then let's go with the fifths and the thirds
So each voice can be heard
And we'll learn to see
That we can always be
In perfect harmony
(In perfect harmony)
