Could it be you are walking on a distant shore
Could it be you are sleeping in the house next door
The world outside my window has nothing to do with me
'Cause now I'm leaving everything
I gotta let my life begin

I bought a one way ticket to you my love
There's no turning back there's nothing to lose
I bought a one way ticket to you my love
But do this train ever stop

I've been watching the world that I just can't touch
I've been losing the feeling that I'm missing so much
The lives outside my window has nothing to do with me
'Cause now I'm running away from the rain
I gotta start to live again

I bought a one way ticket to you my love
There's no turning back there's nothing to lose
I bought a one way ticket to you my love
But do this train ever stop

Somebody tell me where to go and how to catch your soul

I bought a one way ticket to you my love
There's no turning back there's nothing to lose
I bought a one way ticket to you my love
But do this train ever stop

I bought a one way ticket to you my love
But do this train ever stop
