Haven't I seen your face before Haven't we crossed this bridge a dozen times of more Didn't I stop you when we were walking out the door
Haven't I seen your face before

Couldn't we play this game again
You can pretend it's true when I say I let you win Will you still be here when I close my eyes and count to ten
Couldn't we play this game again

I could put my best foot forward, leave the bad parts
out
You do your hocus-pocus and you leave no doubt Take the last weeks back and put my whole self in Find out what you're all about and we could start to begin

Didn't you hate the way it was Wasn't it worse though when we weren't, just because Wouldn't you wish life didn't do this, but it does Didn't you hate the way it was

I could put my best foot forward, leave the bad parts
You do your hocus-pocus and you leave no doubt
Take the last weeks back and put my whole self in Find out what you're all about and we could start to

Again, baby feel my touch on your skin again Turn yourself about let's take a spin again Baby just how long has it been since you last let me let down your hair Laugh like we don't think it's a sin Yeah we could start to begin

Haven't I seen your face before Couldn't we cross this bridge we couldn't cross before

Couldn't you take my hand and tell me that I'm yours
Haven't I seen your face before
