words have never hurt this much in my head i'm giving up now i know to never trust what my heart tells me to love I gave you my all, how is it my fault you left you knocked me down but i'm not giving up you tried to drown me but i'm coming up for air oh, you can rattle the cage but the animal stays oh, i'll stay strong
oh, i'll stay strong
stronger than the wrong you made finding love inside the pain i'll forgive you everything and it's not because I'm weak I gave you my all no it's not my fault you left
oh, i'll stay strong
oh, i'll stay strong

and even though i'm left alone and you cut me deep to the bone i'm still standing like i planned it you won't get the best of me i'm coming back, coming back
oh, i'll stay strong
oh, i'll stay strong
you tried to drown me but i'm coming up for air
oh, i'll stay strong
oh, i'll stay strong
oh, i'll stay strong
oh, i'll stay strong
