Oh man I can't believe the time
I've stayed out late again
I should have been home hours ago
Instead of drinkin with my friends
That girl that I've been dancing with
Is being such a flirt
But I'll be dead when my wife
Smells perfume on my shirt

She's gonna kill me
Yeah I've got a sinkin feeling
When I go home I'll get what I deserve
She's gonna kill me
I'll be dead before the morning
Tonight will be my last night here on earth

Now listen up before I leave
This is my last will
I'd rather see it go to you
Than end up at goodwill
Ralph can have my rod and reel
And Jake can take my tools
I won't have any use for them
Cause I've been such a fool

She's gonna kill me
Her pretty face will be the last thing
That I'll see when I walk through that door
She's gonna kill me
When I get home she's gonna kill me
I won't be hanging round here anymore

She's gonna kill me
Her pretty face will be the last thing
That I'll see when I walk through that door
She's gonna kill me
When I get home she's gonna kill me
I won't be hanging round here anymore
