From the moment
When I first loved you
There was something
That I always knew
Our love was strong enough to last forever

But all we heard was Theyâ€™ll never make it
Those kids are too young
Itâ€™s a big mistake
But they didnâ€™t know this little thing about us

We belong together
And we were meant for each other
Nothing is better
Than sharing each day with one another
And we belong together

We made it through those good and bad times
But to me its
Really no surprise
No matter what our love could keep us together

And looking back on
Our life since that day
There is something
That Iâ€™ve got to say
I loved you then, and I will love you forever

We belong together
And we were meant for each other
Nothing is better
Than sharing each day with one another
And we belong together

We belong together
And we were meant for each other
Nothing is better
Than sharing each day with one another
And we belong together
