She couldn't help but look his way when he walked in

Their eyes met when he came through the door
She knew at once, he was like, she'd pictured him
She knew he was the one she'd waited for

Where've you been, I've been looking for you
all this time

I've been waiting here for you to come along
And now I see you standing there in front of me
All my empty days and lonely nights are gone

A few years later after a long day at work
She comes home and he's already there
Candlelight, a meal for two, just for her
He wraps his arms around her while she says

Where've you been, I've been looking for you
all this time

I've been waiting here for you to come along
And now I see you standing there in front of me
All my empty days and lonely nights are gone

Later on one night with the lights down low
He takes her hand and he leads her to the bed
She loves him so and remembers that night long ago
The night when she looked at him and said

Where've you been, I've been looking for you
all this time

I've been waiting here for you to come along
And now I see you standing there in front of me
All my empty days and lonely nights are gone
All my empty days and lonely nights are gone
