theres only one boy x3
there's only one boy that i wanna speand my life with the rest of these boys aint worth a love tip. teenage love is all we gots so we gets to live it up Haaa. boy you wont believe me if i said i aint giving up, Im sorry but you got my heart on lock, i think its double cuffed who knows what you got, but your love makes me dreaming when im not, take you to meet my momma if you want to, my daddy aint tripping so you gets to meet him too, all i want from you is to do just prove to me you here to stay, and never walks away cause nothing lasts forever, but long as we're trying this'll last forever, i rock ya last name, and put ya picture in my frame, i think about you everynight i hope you feel the same, when im in the studio im thinking bout you, and i got a playa's heart but not for you, cause you my one & only boy my one & only i wanna speand my lifetime with my one & only, I aint need your password to your phone, cause i knew you was faithful all alone, and these sluts can never steal my spot, cause im wifey they must of have forgot, you my one & only x2 can you see that? you my one & only x2 could you be that?
