It's so typical and often statistical.
You thought it was over and then you've done a U-turn.
Back to where you started,
Snake and ladders, the game has started.
Roll the dice, take that chance.

One step forward,
And three steps back,
You want to be safe..
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.

Back to square one,
And you want to know why nothings getting done?
Back to square one,
And you're wondering why your plans are coming
undone?

Spin the wheel and pick a number,
Put one foot, in front of the other.
Don't pass go, lose a turn.
You're out of the game,
Past the point of no return.

One step forward,
And three steps back,
You want to be safe..
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.

Back to square one,
And you want to know why nothings getting done?
Back to square one,
And you're wondering why your plans are coming
undone?

Back to square one....
