You took your time getting here
And those people that walked through that door before you disappeared
When you walked in somehow it seemed
Your clothes they matched my party decorations like a dream

But you don't know about it
How much I think about it
My hands touching your hands touching everywhere

And when the bottle starts to spin
I'll be making sure I'm on the other end
And all the crazy, crazy things that I would do
If I were locked in the closet with you

And then I move so I'm alone
And I hook you with my imaginary line that I have thrown
And then the lights they start to dance
And while we're making conversation I am making plans

But you don't know about it
How much I think about it
My hands touching your hands touching everywhere

And when the bottle starts to spin
I'll be making sure I'm on the other end
And all the crazy, crazy things that I would do
If I were locked in the closet with-

In my mind we're in the kissing Everybody's out there wishing
They were in there too
With somebody just like

You don't know about it
How much I think about it
My hands touching your hands touching everywhere

And when the bottle starts to spin
I'll be making sure I'm on the other end
And all the crazy, crazy things that I would do
If I were locked in the closet with you
