

One Eskimo "Chocolate"

I'm just sitting in the clouds today
I hope to God it doesn't rain
'Cause everyone got problems and I know I've got mine
But at least I've got the stars with me

Then I fall down, I just fall now

Can I have your attention please?
We're like chocolate in the sun
And in this heat we are melting into everyone

She doesn't have the heart to say
That she hasn't got the heart to stay
She's got her problems so I stay out the way
I'll be sitting in my cloud today

Can I have your attention please?
We're like chocolate in the sun
And in this heat we are melting into everyone

Can I have your attention please?
We're like chocolate in the sun
And in this heat we are melting into

Can I have your attention please?
We're like chocolate in the sun
And in this heat we are melting into everyone
