Slip off my skin, fall into bed
I'm staying in with you here inside my head
Mail me a smile, phone me a kiss
I'm in a dream, get me outta this
And of all the creatures under the sky
There is you and I, you and I, you and I, you and I

And it's all too much, you're in every little thing I touch
And it's all too real, you're in every little thing I feel
And it's all such a waste, you're in every little thing I taste
Come on, come on, come on, come on, be strong

Think of a time, you name the place
I'll close my eyes and I'm with you, we're face to face
I see your smile, I feel your kiss
I'm in a dream, get me outta this

And the only thing that I've never tried
Is leaving you and suicide
And of all the creatures under the sky
There is you and I, you and I, you and I, you and I

And it's all too much, you're in every little thing I touch
And it's all too real, you're in every little thing I feel
And it's all such a waste, you're in every little thing I
Come on, come on, come on, come on be strong
Just let us, let us, let us be strong

Never too much, never too late
Never turn away, never say die
Never let it slip away

Never too much, never too late
Never say die, never say never
Never, never, never, never

Never too much, never too late
Never turn away, never say die
Never let it slip away

Never too much, never too late
Never say die, never say never
Never, never, never, never

Never too much, never too late
Never turn away, never say die
Never let it slip away

Never too much, never too late
Never say die, never say never
Never, never, never, never

Never too much, never too late
Never turn away, never say die
Never let it slip away
Never let it slip away
Never let it slip away
