

One-Eyed Doll "New Orleans"

Visit "New Orleans" on MotoLyrics.com

I took a walk in a crowded town
Where if you breathe too deeply you're likely to drown
But the air's not as thick as the sin I found in New Orleans

Rainbow necks on drunken girls
Who'd sell their souls for a string of pearls
I hope there's no place in the world
Like New Orleans

New Orleans is a spooky place
You can see the devil smiling in every face
Voodoo babies put their pins in place
In New Orleans

I took a walk in a crowded town
I saw a dark boy get beaten down
I watched him turn to a reddish brown
In New Orleans

I held his hand and I sang my song
I was lying when I told him there was nothing wrong
I won't be back for sometime long
Not in New Orleans

New Orleans is a spooky place
You can see the devil smiling in every face
Voodoo babies put their pins in place
In New Orleans

Whoaa New Orleans is a spooky place
You can see the devil smiling in every face
Voodoo babies put their pins in place...

In New Orleans

Visit One-Eyed Doll page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.