Seems I knew that you was gone
But I must have been too young
Wouldn't have killed me to say "I love you"
Now your memory is all I've got
And you're always on my mind
And you're always on my mind

And she says "I think I fell asleep in my misery, and the rain fell and washed away all my doubts"
"And I wish I could just give you immunity
From all this pain we've built up inside"

I can't hide you anymore
Just accepting that you're gone
Wouldn't have killed me to say "I love you"
Now your memory is all I've got
And you're always on my mind
And you're always on my mind

And she says "I think I fell asleep in my misery, and the rain fell and washed away all my doubts"
"And I wish I could just give you immunity
From all this pain we've built up inside"

And I've been gone your whole life You've carried on and on and on and on I've watched you your whole life
Carry on and on and on and on and on

Now your rain washed over me
I still feel you in the wind
Why are you always on my mind?

And she says "I think I fell asleep in my misery, and the rain fell and washed away all my doubts"
"And I wish I could just give you immunity from all this pain I've built up inside"

She said "I think I fell asleep in my misery, and the rain fell and washed away all my doubts"
"And I wish I could just give you immunity
From all this pain we've built up inside"

I said "I think I fell asleep in my misery, and the rain fell and washed away all my doubts"
"And I wish I could just give you immunity
From all this pain we've built up inside"

I said la da de da da da la da de da da da
Yeah la da de da da da
Mmmmm mmmmm
