mercy come upon us
mercy let us go hold me up just longer shine a light on hope

shine upon what's missing shine upon the rest calm the winds inside me torrents in my chest

it only takes a moment for a lifetime to go by it only takes a moment for the changing of the signs you will not remember though you were the same the Jewel of June, the Gemini forever shares your name forever in our minds as if love would obey time as if wonder could be lost as if truth could tell a lie it only takes moment for a lifetime to go by

it only takes a moment for the changing of the signs

mercy you're upon us mercy you've been slow lest you think we're stronger for what we've got to show cast upon what shines now a shadow laid to rest the voices of our fathers whispers of our death

it only takes a moment for the changing of the signs
