Cheers to a girl
I believe her eyes were hazel
We met on a night that was cold and dark
I took her number tried twice to no answer
So I did take a walk home thru the park

And oh yeah nothing good is ever easy
But then again it doesn't have to be so hard
I understand the weight of indifference
As I stand at the gates of your fortress heart

Where do you go when you say you'll be right back
You disappear into the thin air
Like a wisp of smoke you linger for a long second
And then you're gone like you were never even there

And oh yeah nothing good is ever easy
But then again it doesn't have to be so hard
I understand your spectral moments
As I stand at the gates of your fortress heart

Here's to a love that never saw fruition
Thrown under the bus of circumstance and time
One thing I know when the circle's completed
We'll be the ones with the sad fallow eyes

And oh yeah nothing good is ever easy
But then again it doesn't have to be so hard
I understand the weight of this moment
As I stand at the gates of your fortress heart
