Fairy Tale (feat.Marietta Fafouti)

Once, once you said it's my voice that reloads you with pride. Once you heard I don't love you. That made you cry. Prove them wrong. Be my Fairy tale, be my home.
I'm your man, I'm your everything but I'm gone.

Stars may fall, dreams may lie but your hope is still there, still alive, like the dance you should never prepare. Watch your move ,step on my feet. Always guide me through life like this. And if I'm old, let your happiness lie on my knees.

She's what you prayed for, once in your life. That's what you wanted, never denied.
Be my fairy tale, be my home.
