Madlove

This fire can't erase my feelings
but I know you think I'm fine.
Deny it, but you'll see I'll fight it with my tears between my eyes.

Describe it to your friends and laugh
and I'll still care, I swear to God..
Cause babe, I still believe in what we have,
Yeah that's my pride.

I ain't happy, I'm a mess without you
Where's your smile my pretty girl?
I found it in a broken castle,
in a place with dreams and pain.

Don't break me..
I still cry to show you that my life is shit because of you.
Dont burry me, I still cry to show you that I love you like a mad.

Be stronger, I won't stay to lead you,
now my way is far too long.
Deny it, but you'll see I'll find you when the stars are about to fall.

Dont break me,
I still try to show that my life is red, my death is black
Dont burry me,
I can't breath to shout you that I love you like a mad.
