Breathing deep
And again
Feels like I'm having a deja vu
The key slipped
From my hand
Rain in the face
Darkness creeping through
Yes i knew
It was you
I could feel you there standing behind my back
You were looking right through me
Now i am all alone standing on a deck

Where did you go again?
I know that you, saw my soul crying
You know and understand
Why so many times my heart was dying
You know I felt you too
You were my luck
When I played life like a gamble
At least let me look at you
Don't hide from me
My guardian angel

Half asleep
Wind and rain
Are dancing in the moon light
To the dark blue night
Am i going insane?
But i feel you there laying
Right by my side
Yes i knew
It was you
I could feel my heart beating in a different way
You were looking
Right through me

Then I turned to discover that you're not there.

Where did you go again?
I know that you, saw my soul crying
You know and understand

Why so many times my heart was dying
You know I felt you too
You were my luck
When I played life like a gamble
At least let me look at you
Don't hide from me
My guardian angel

Angelâ€¦angelâ€¦
Angel... angelâ€¦

Where did you go again?
I know that you, saw my soul crying
You know and understand
Why so many times my heart was dying
You know I felt you too
You were my luck
When I played life like a gamble
At least let me look at you
Don't hide from me
My guardian angel

Breathing deep and again
Feels like Iâ€™m having a déjà vuâ€¦
