In the night i watch the days events on my t.v. set
I spend my whole life watching images that come made of shit
88 killed in a wreck on all the channels and presets
Is there soneway out or maybe soemthing else on?
Aint that life aint it always the same thing on every night
Aint it pretty how life looks on the other side
I don't care quite like i should ive seen show all my life
Is it 8 o clock i think there's something else on
But a familiar toen and a deadly scene come into view
Ive seen the light fade in a strangers eyes
And heard her last breath on cold lips
Death on board a smoking car a dying wife in my heart
Is it 8 o clock?i think there's something else on Aint that life aint it always the same thing on every
night
Aint it pretty how life looks on the other side
I don't care quite like i should ive seen show all my life
Is it 8 o clock? i think there's sommething else on Aint that life aint it always the same thing on every
night
Aint it pretty how life looks on the other side
I don't care quite like i should ive seen show all my life
Is it 8 oclock?i think there's something else on.
