So I guess why

I was just another one of your toys putting me left putting me right girl I was just a ploy to be ya

little something thats just here for entertainment

Well Im tired of your games and im tired of containment

See I was on my journey to find my problems 31

But in the process you ended up making me the protical son

Because I

I told you about my brothers and my family and slowly began to want the pleasure of you and not my sanity

I was beating hard (beating hard) for the wrong business

You living your life like im non existent

Making everybody think that Im the one to blame

Well GODs voice is in my ear spilling your whole game

And its such a shame I thought you were a keeper

I thought you changed for the better but now im seeing deeper

Im letting you go and dont worry cuz this is spirit led

I guess now is the best time to say whats left unsaid

[Chorus: King Cole]

See baby Ive tried and tried to wait

till the day we could get this whole thing settled

Been out of my mind these past few days

Girl the water has boiled out the kettle and if I continue down this path you got me walking to my death

All the words we left unsaid will take us out

Heres what I left unsaid

[M.J.Dub]

No more apologizes they both said

Ive been around the world and back within the same year

At first your tearing up my heart with every soft kiss
And every hand that was held walking off a bliss

Man

I thank GOD that he brought me through the pain when those suicidal thoughts were seeping into my brain telling me im just pawn in your little chess game and that you sacrificed my love for some momentary fame

Well you got applause Congratulations
And even though you hurt me your my inspiration You showed me that I still got alot to learn on this journey with the LORD to find the one that will yearn (one that will yearn) to be my everything and to see that a relationship with GOD is a must
And without it then we couldnt be well im wishing you many blessings in your endeavors
And I pray that your next relationship lasts forever

[Chorus]

See baby Ive tried and tried to wait
till the day we could get this whole thing settled
Been out of my mind these past few days
Girl the water has boiled out the kettle
and if I continue down this path you got me walking to
my death
All the words we left unsaid will take us out

[King Cole]

Girl I was there to give you joy in your despair (To make you smile) and then you hurt me as if you ever cared Doing everything I did your ass was never there And as I tried to fight to get my mouth to close Girl Im walking through those doors and you cant stop me you can watch me Yeah

[Chorus 2x]

See baby Ive tried and tried to wait
till the day we could get this whole thing settled
Been out of my mind these past few days
Girl the water has boiled out the kettle
and if I continue down this path you got me walking to
my death
All the words we left unsaid will take us out
