It's getting slow all around
You're walking in your sound
You feel your heart stop and start
But now is racing to the ground
So many highs so many lows
You feel a rushing in your toes
You seen this on tv
Forgot to ask friends exactly how it goes
You feel the music touch your skin
Something is bursting from within Never in the world should this stop
Once you drop the only way is up

Up!
Once you drop the only way is up

Up!
Once you drop the only way is up
I never been in love in my life
And now I know what it might feel like
This feeling from inside me mind implode on itself and reach a higher high
The bass drum hits my spine wrapped around the filthy Bass line
Never in the world should be stop
Once you drop the only way is up

Up!
Once you drop the only way is up

Up!
Once you drop the only way is up
Free your mind
So free your mind,
So free your mind
So free your mind,
So free your mind,
Never in the world should be stop
So free your mind,
Once you drop the only way is up
