Beyond the reality
Horizons of dreams
Are hiding in the shadows
The border is opened all the time
But once you've crossed the line
It's hard to turn around

The troll on the mountain so high
Is sneaking around with mischief in his eyes
The fairies are playing by the sea
And no one can doubt
The atmosphere of glee

There's a world of grand illusion
Where your dreams don't fail
Just close your eyes and cross the border
To my Fairy Tale
Where storms are far away

The wizard is sending his spies
To try to find out the sorceress's disguise
Believe and be welcomed to the place
That is so full of life, excitement and of grace

The brownies will show you around
And give you a sign where dangers can be found
Coz all of the beauty you see
Ain't always what it seems
Not even in your dreams

There's a world of grand illusion
Where your dreams don't fail
Just close your eyes and cross the border
To my Fairy Tale
Where storms are far away
